SUMMER READING 2024

AGES 0-4

A large graphic of a grassy field with a path leading to a sun. The path is composed of green rectangular blocks, each containing the number '10'. The path starts at a block labeled 'START' and ends at a block labeled 'END'. There are four blocks along the path that are circled in purple. The path is flanked by two large green arches, each made of several blocks with the number '10'. The background is a blue sky with clouds and green grass.
