General Policy

General Policy

The Allerton Public Library District is established and operated in compliance with the Illinois Compiled Statutes. The Allerton Public Library District is in compliance with all other federal and state laws that affect library operations, including the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Fair Labor Standards Act, the Bloodborne Pathogen Standard, the Illinois Accessibility Code, the Open Meetings Act, the Freedom of Information Act, the State Records Act, the Library Records Confidentiality Act, and the Drug Free Workplace Act.

The Allerton Public Library District is governed by a board of trustees created and maintained in compliance with Chapter 75 of the Illinois Compiled Statutes. The Board of Library Trustees has written bylaws that outline its purpose, operational procedures, and address conflict-of-interest issues. The Board of Library Trustees reviews these bylaws on a regular basis. The Board of Library Trustees meets at least 10 times per year, on a regular monthly schedule and in compliance with the Open Meetings Act. Written or recorded minutes are kept of each meeting and, when passed, are available for public inspection and retained in compliance with the State Records Act. The Board of Library Trustees has exclusive control of all property owned by the library and of all expenditure of moneys collected, donated, or appropriated for the library fund.

Educational service to adults and to children, both as individuals and as members of organizations, is a primary function of this library; consequently, the library shall pursue an active program of leadership and cooperation with other agencies in encouraging the use of significant material representing all points of view and the preservation of historical resources pertaining to the surrounding area.

The library's materials budget will be allocated to resources that support these roles in accordance with established guidelines. In meeting its objectives and providing recreational material, the library shall encourage such use of leisure time as will promote the personal development and social well-being of the library patron.

The Board of Library Trustees has a board-approved mission statement, a long-range plan, a disaster prevention and recovery plan, and policies. The library is a member of the Illinois Heartland Libraries System and participates in resource sharing through interlibrary loan and reciprocal borrowing. The library provides access to World Share ILL. The library participates in the Standards for the Services in Illinois Multitype Systems by fulfilling member library responsibilities. At least every ten years, the Board of Library Trustees determines if the physical facility is adequate to meet the needs of the community and conducts a study to determine if the library is providing collections and services appropriate to the community. If it is determined that the facility is inadequate or the services are not sufficient or appropriate to meet the needs of the community, the Board of Library Trustees takes steps to correct any problems. The Board of Library Trustees reviews policies at intervals not greater than three years.

Members of the Board of Library Trustees participate in relevant local, state, regional, and national decision making to effect change that will benefit libraries.

The Board of Library Trustees, along with the Library Director, develops and conducts a meaningful and comprehensive trustee orientation program for each new board member.

The Board of Library Trustees conducts an annual review of the Library Director.

Division of Responsibility Between the Board of Library Trustees and Library Director

Under the Illinois Public Library Law (75 ILCS) the Board of Library Trustees is, among other functions, empowered to formulate “reasonable rules and regulations ... in order to render the use of the library of the greatest benefit to the greatest number” and to “appoint a competent librarian and necessary assistants, to fix their compensation, to remove such appointees, and to retain professional consultants as needed.” Thus, in defining and delineating the division of responsibility between the Board of Library Trustees and the Library Director, the Board of Library Trustees recognizes that the ultimate responsibility to the community to provide “the greatest benefit to the greatest number” rests with the Board of Library Trustees. Policy determination is the Board of Library Trustees power and duty. Management is the Library Director’s responsibility, for which he or she is responsible to the Board of Library Trustees. Collection Policy

Materials Selection Policy

The authority and responsibility for the selection of library materials are delegated to the library director and staff that is qualified for this activity. No employee may be disciplined or dismissed for the selection of library materials when the selection is made in good faith and in accordance with the written policy required to be established pursuant to Illinois Library Law. Suggestions from patrons are welcome and will be considered using the same criteria as all other selections.

In accordance with the recommendations of Serving Our Public: Standards for Illinois Public Libraries, the Allerton Public Library District will allocate not less than 12% of its operating budget on library materials for patrons every year. These library materials will be selected in a variety of formats including, but not limited to, print, video, sound recording, and electronic media. Each type of material must be considered in terms of its own excellence and the audience for whom it is intended. No single standard can be applied in all cases. Some material may be judged primarily in terms of artistic merit, scholarship, or value to humanity; others are selected to satisfy the informational, recreational, or educational interests of the community.

Reviews in professionally recognized periodicals are a primary source for materials selection. Standard bibliographies, book lists by recognized authorities, including best seller lists, and the advice of competent people in specific subject areas also will be used. Some titles that are used regularly are Library Journal and School Library Journal.

Due to the vast number of titles published and the library's limited budget, the library cannot purchase all print and non-print materials. Selection of materials are influenced by patron request and demand, popularity of the author, authenticity of information, copyright date of material, professional judgments, physical features and format, and price. If the library is not able to purchase a requested item, the library will seek to fulfill the request through interlibrary loan.

Within the scope of the library's mission statement, it is the intention of the library staff to develop a collection that is adequate to support popular general interest and informational needs.

The library keeps the collection vital and useful by retaining or replacing essential materials, and removing, on a systematic and continuous basis, those works that are worn, outdated, damaged, lost, of little historical significance, or no longer in demand. Materials which are removed from the library may or may not be made available for public purchase at book sales.

The library supports intellectual freedom and has adopted the following statements as policy: American Library Association Freedom to Read Statement, American Library Association Library Bill of Rights, and the “Freedom to View” statement of the American Film and Video Association. These statements are listed in the Appendices.

The purchase of certain materials by the library does not mean the library endorses a viewpoint or promotes a particular point of view or belief.

Requests for reconsideration may be made only by active, registered patrons of the Allerton Public Library. Requests shall be made in writing and given to the Library Director for a written response. There is a limit of two requests per Allerton Public Library patron per year.

Gifts and Memorials

The Allerton Public Library District is grateful for gifts, and its collection has been enriched by donations of materials as well as contributions. Through donors, the library has been able to acquire materials which could not have been purchased otherwise.

Donation of Library Materials

In accepting a gift of library materials, the following guidelines will be followed:

- Speak to library staff about what you want to donate.
- Items must have been stored in a mold/mildew free environment. Mold/mildew are dangerous for a library and its patrons.
- Items must be in excellent condition. This means they are not discolored, dirty, stained, or falling apart.
- Items are current (within 2-5 years of publication date). Older items are generally not added to the library shelves. Items not added will be sold at the book sale or donated.
- No sets of encyclopedias.
- No dictionaries.
- No Reader's Digest condensed books.
- No text books.
- No Bibles.
- No VHS/CASSETTES/Audiobooks/CDs.
- No dropping books off outside the library door or the drop box.

The library reserves the right to decide whether the items donated should be added to the collection. Some cannot due to the following reasons: (1) a duplicate of an item of which the library already owns; (2) outdated material-item does not have sufficient present reference or circulating value; and/or (3) in poor condition—which would not justify the expense of processing it, i.e. cataloging and preparing it for circulation. The material will be judged by the same standards of selection as those applied to the purchase of new materials. The Allerton Public Library District accepts gift materials with the understanding that materials which are useful to the library collection will be retained and other materials disposed of in whatever manner the library deems best. The library reserves the right to interfile gifts with other collections on the same subject, so that all collections are organized and classified according to library standards for the best public service.

Gift and Memorial Program

The library welcomes monetary contributions in memorial to or in honor of named individuals. In order that the library can properly honor the generosity, a special form to record the information is used and should be completed. The library may place within the item a name of the donor, if desired.

Donation of Art Objects and Other Types of Materials

Although such gifts are usually welcomed and valued, final decision on their acceptance rests with the Library Director and the Library Board of Trustees.

Other Donations

The library welcomes cash contributions, gifts of real property, stocks, and bonds. It is our custom to expend cash gifts on materials, equipment, or a project which is acceptable to the donor. Although it is unlikely, there may be an occasion in which the restrictions set by the donor make it impossible for the library to accept the contribution. All donations are subject to approval by the Library Director and the Library Board of Trustees.

Use of Gifts

All gifts are accepted with the understanding that it may someday be necessary that they be sold or disposed of in the best interest of the library. The library cannot commit itself to perpetually housing a donation. If possible, donors will be notified of the intent to dispose.

Income Tax Statements

The library cannot appraise a value of a donation of materials or art. It will, however, issue the donor a letter acknowledging the donation. It is the donor's decision whether he or she will determine the value of the donation or utilize an independent appraiser. While the gifts to the library as a government unit might qualify as tax deductible, the donor will have to contact their tax professional for guidance.

Restriction

No donation can be accepted unless it is given to the library without restrictions unless the Board of Library Trustees has specifically adopted an agreement to do so. All gifts may be used, sold, or disposed of in the best interest of the library. All donations are accepted only if, in the opinion of the Library Director and Board of Library Trustees, they are in the best interests of the library.

The current jurisdictional boundaries are Monticello Township.

Persons owing fines, fees, or overdue materials to this or other libraries must take care of these obligations before an Allerton Public Library District card will be issued. The factor for determining the closest public library shall be the residence of the non-resident. Non-residents shall apply at the participating public library in the school district in which the non-resident has his or her principal residence unless, due to the commonality of community interests, library services at another library that is physically closer may better serve the needs of the non-resident.

Individuals residing beyond the jurisdictional boundaries of Allerton Public Library District and not within the boundaries of another public library, and owning no property within the jurisdictional boundaries of the Allerton

Public Library District, may purchase a non-resident fee card according to the tax bill calculation method by presenting either a tax bill or rental receipt and allowing the library staff to calculate the fee for their specific home. This fee entitles the entire family to use the Allerton Public Library District and any public library in the Illinois Heartland Library System.

The nonresident fee shall not apply to disabled veterans and surviving spouses who provide documentation that they are exempt from paying property taxes on their primary residence in compliance with the Disabled Veterans' Standard Homestead Exemption.

A parent or guardian must attest that their student qualifies for this program at the time of registration by completing an income certification document. To qualify for the Cards for Kids program, the student's household must meet the Income Eligibility Guidelines outlined by the Food and Nutrition Service, USDA, for Child Nutrition Programs. This card may only be used by the student and not by other members of the household. This card is subject to the same provisions outlined in the "Circulation Policy" section of this policy.

Cards are good for one year from the date of registration or until the end of the IGA.

- Non-resident annual fees are determined by calculating the library tax the non-resident borrower's property would be assessed if it were located in Monticello Township. The cost of your card will be the assessed taxable value multiplied by the current rate. Non-resident renters will pay $75.00 as the annual non-resident fee.
- Adults wishing to register for a new card must bring with them a driver's license or photo ID and proof of address.
- Forms of identification include, but are not limited to, driver's license, utility bills, mail, or voter's registration card.
- Any child under the age of 18 can be issued a library card with signed parental or guardian consent. By signing the registration card, parents or guardians are agreeing to take responsibility for all card usage including items checked on the card.
- Non-resident library cards are valid in any public library in the Illinois Heartland Library System.

Confidentiality of Records

The Allerton Public Library District abides by Illinois State Law which states that the records of patron transactions and the identification of registered patrons is confidential material. The Allerton Public Library District does not make available the records of patron transactions to any party except in compliance with the law. The Allerton Public Library District does not make available lists of registered library patrons except in compliance with the law.

Display Space

The Allerton Public Library District maintains bulletin boards and display cases for the exclusive purpose of promoting services and programs of the library.

The Allerton Public Library District (APLD) will use item displays to showcase library materials with a shared topic, theme, or characteristic. All displays support the library's mission statement and meet the qualifications laid out in the library's material selection policy. Items on display do not necessarily represent the views of or imply endorsement by APLD, its board, administration or staff. The library director may delegate or share display creation responsibility with members of the library staff to incorporate a variety of knowledge, experiences, and viewpoints. All displays, exhibits, and bulletin board postings follow the same intellectual freedom guidelines laid out in the library's Materials Selection Policy. The library board affirms the American Library Association's Library Bill of Rights, Freedom to View, and Freedom to Read policy statements in support of displaying library materials.

Security Camera Policy

The Library has security cameras to enhance the safety of library users, staff, and property. Security cameras are used to discourage illegal behavior and policy violations, to enhance the opportunity to apprehend offenders, and to provide recorded data relevant to the control of library security and operations. The security camera installation consists of dedicated cameras providing real-time surveillance through a central monitoring system facility. There is no audio recording associated with the cameras.

The library posts a sign at the public entrance alerting patrons to the use of security cameras for monitoring and recording on library property.

Video footage is collected for library purposes. The library is under no legal obligation to collect video footage. Recordings shall be kept for approximately 30 days.

The recorded data and recorders are considered confidential and secure. Live surveillance and recorded data are accessible in staff areas only. Only the following administrative staff members are permitted to release recorded archival data to law enforcement in compliance with this policy: Library Director and Technical Services. Such authorized administrative staff may direct IT staff to access and isolate live or recorded data.

Authorized staff may use live surveillance, a still shot, or selected portions of recorded data to assess the security risk of a specific individual, to investigate a crime on library property, to request law enforcement assistance, to validate serious or repeated policy violations, to alert staff to banned or repeatedly disruptive individuals, or to address internal security/operational concerns.

Staff specifically may not access surveillance or recorded data in response to requests from the press or general public, including victims of crime and individuals concerned with personal safety of family, friends, or co-workers. Such individuals are directed to contact law enforcement.

Authorized staff may use live surveillance or recorded data to cooperate with law enforcement investigations of criminal activity, missing persons, or runaways. Video data is made available to law enforcement without a court order as long as the request is limited to the person's visible presence in the library or surrounding library property. Any such video data provided to law enforcement will be with the knowledge and authorization of the Director or Technical Services.

In all other respects, recorded data will be accorded the same level of confidentiality and protection provided to library users by Illinois State law, Allerton Public Library District, and the American Library Association policies on confidentiality and privacy.

Unattended Children

Parents are responsible for the behavior of their children while they are in the library. The Allerton Public Library District is committed to help children with activities related to the library. The library cannot act in loco parentis and is not responsible for the safety of children left unattended.

Preschool children may not be left unattended in the library. Although parents are not expected to be in attendance at library programs planned specifically for young children, they are expected to remain in the building in case of an emergency.

Parents and caregivers must not leave children under the age of 10 unattended in the library. All children under the age of 10 must be accompanied by a parent or other responsible caregiver. The responsible caregiver must be at least 12 years old. If a child is unsupervised, attempts will be made to locate the parent or caregiver.

In situations where these policies are abused, the library staff will take appropriate action. This may include contacting parents or legal authorities.

Patron Conduct

The library may not be used for:

- Profitable reasons
- Private parties
- Non-library programs that involve the sale, advertisement or promotion of products or services

If a patron is creating a disturbance or causing problems in the library, the library staff has the authority or right to tell that patron to leave the library. If that patron refuses to comply and continues to cause problems, the police can then be contacted to remove that patron from the library.

To ensure that all patrons may have considerate use of the Allerton Public Library District, appropriate behavior is expected. Violation of any of the following rules will result in a warning and/or expulsion from library property. Whenever necessary, police will be contacted. The library staff has authority to carry out all powers in this policy.

1. No loud talking or boisterous behavior (running, fighting, engaging in horseplay, etc.)
2. No food may be consumed in the library except in areas designated for that purpose.
3. No smoking.
4. No destruction or mutilation of library property.
5. No parking bicycles or other vehicles in a manner that blocks or hinders entry to the library.

Conduct Ordinance

The Allerton Public Library District is dedicated to providing access to knowledge and information through reading, writing, and quiet contemplation, providing patrons the right to use materials and services without being disturbed or impeded, and providing patrons and employees a secure and comfortable environment. The Public Library Act provides the Board of Library Trustees with the general power to carry out the spirit and intent of the Act in establishing and maintaining the library and providing library services and the specific power to “exclude from the use of the library any person who willfully violates an ordinance or regulation prescribed.”

The Board of Library Trustees of the Allerton Public Library District establishes its conduct ordinance as follows:

1. A patron who engages in any activity which materially disrupts the use of library facilities, collections, or services by patrons or materially disrupts the ability of the staff to perform its duties shall cease such activity immediately upon request by library personnel. The patron shall be advised of the library rules and what behavior by him or her is in violation of the rules.
2. In such instances involving minors, identification will be requested and the incident may be reported to the parent or guardian.
3. If, following a request, the patron fails or refuses to comply or responds to the request in an abusive fashion, he or she will be required to leave the library premises immediately for the balance of - that calendar day. If the patron refuses to comply with the rules after being requested to do so, the patron will be notified in writing of the violation, requested to cease the violation and warned of the consequences for his or her lack of compliance. If he or she fails to leave, the police will be summoned.

4. Library staff will record instances in which patrons are required to leave the library. Upon the second recorded instance in which a patron is required to leave the library premises within a thirty-day period, the Library Director shall bar the patron from use of library premises for a period of thirty days. Parents or guardians of minors will be notified in writing after the second recorded instance in which a minor is required to leave the library and advised of the consequences of any further recorded instances.
 5. Written notice shall be hand delivered to the patron of the library or mailed to the patron at his or her last known address with first class postage fully pre-paid certified mail. The notice shall be deemed received on the date of delivery if served personally or on the date of receipt if served by certified mail.
 6. Patrons or parents of patrons wishing to appeal such action may do so upon written request to the Board of Library Trustees within 10 days of the written notice of suspension.
 7. In the event a patron barred for the use of the library attempts entry to the library during any such period of exclusion, the police will be summoned and informed of the prior action.
 8. In the event the patron persists in abusive conduct or disruptive behavior following such a period of exclusion, the Library Director shall report to the Board of Library Trustees such conduct following prior exclusion and the Board of Library Trustees will consider a long-term exclusion of that patron. Patrons may have their library privileges suspended for up to one year. Patrons who have had a previous suspension may have their library privileges permanently revoked. The library may notify Illinois Heartland Library System of the suspension or revocation of the patron's library privileges with the library. The entry into the library by any patron who is suspended or revoked shall constitute a Trespass to Public Property. The patron will be asked to leave by the library staff and upon failure to leave; the police will be summoned.
 9. This ordinance shall take effect immediately upon enactment and approval according to the law and be in full force and effect thereafter. A copy shall be posted within three days of enactment at the library and the secretary shall maintain a certified copy in the official records of the library available for public inspection.

POLICY PROHIBITING SEXUAL HARASSMENT

I.* PROHIBITION ON SEXUAL HARASSMENT

It is unlawful to harass a person because of that person's sex. The courts have determined that sexual harassment is a form of discrimination under Title VII of the U.S. Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended in 1991. All persons have a right to work in an environment free from sexual harassment. Sexual harassment is unacceptable misconduct which affects individuals of all genders and sexual orientations. It is a policy of Allerton Public Library District to prohibit harassment of any person by any library official, library employee or library agency on the basis of sex or gender. All library officials, library employees and library agencies are prohibited from sexually harassing any person, regardless of any employment relationship or lack thereof.

II.* DEFINITION OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT

This policy adopts the definition of sexual harassment as stated in the Illinois Human Rights Act, which currently defines sexual harassment as:

Any unwelcome sexual advances or requests for sexual favors or any conduct of a sexual nature when:

- (1) Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment,
- (2) Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual, or
- (3) Such conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

Conduct which may constitute sexual harassment includes:

- Verbal: sexual innuendos, suggestive comments, insults, humor, and jokes about sex, anatomy or gender-specific traits, sexual propositions, threats, repeated requests for dates, or statements about other employees, even outside of their presence, of a sexual nature.
- Non-verbal: suggestive or insulting sounds (whistling), leering, obscene gestures, sexually suggestive bodily gestures, "catcalls", "smacking" or "kissing" noises.
- Visual: posters, signs, pin-ups or slogans of a sexual nature, viewing pornographic material or websites.
- Physical: touching, unwelcome hugging or kissing, pinching, brushing the body, any coerced sexual act or actual assault.
- Textual/Electronic: "sexting" (electronically sending messages with sexual content, including pictures and video), the use of sexually explicit language, harassment, cyber stalking and threats via all forms of electronic communication (e-mail, text/picture/video messages, intranet/on-line postings, blogs, instant messages and social network websites like Facebook and Twitter).

The most severe and overt forms of sexual harassment are easier to determine. On the other end of the spectrum, some sexual harassment is more subtle and depends, to some extent, on individual perception and interpretation. The courts will assess sexual harassment by a standard of what would offend a “reasonable person.”

III. PROCEDURE FOR REPORTING AN ALLEGATION OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT

An employee who either observes sexual harassment or believes herself/himself to be the object of sexual harassment should deal with the incident(s) as directly and firmly as possible by clearly communicating her/his position to the offending employee, and the library director. It is not necessary for sexual harassment to be directed at the person making the report.

Any employee may report conduct which is believed to be sexual harassment, including the following:

- Electronic/Direct Communication. If there is sexual harassing behavior in the workplace, the harassed employee should directly and clearly express her/his objection that the conduct is unwelcome and request that the offending behavior stop. The initial message may be verbal. If subsequent messages are needed, they should be put in writing in a note or a memo.
- Contact with Supervisory Personnel. At the same time direct communication is undertaken, or in the event the employee feels threatened or intimidated by the situation, the problem must be promptly reported to the immediate supervisor of the person making the report or the library director.

The employee experiencing what he or she believes to be sexual harassment must not assume that the employer is aware of the conduct. If there are no witnesses and the victim fails to notify a supervisor or the library director, the library will not be presumed to have knowledge of the harassment.

- Resolution Outside Library. The purpose of this policy is to establish prompt, thorough and effective procedures for responding to every report and incident so that problems can be identified and remedied by the library. However, all library employees have the right to contact the Illinois Department of Human Rights (IDHR) or the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) for information regarding filing a formal complaint with those entities. An IDHR complaint must be filed within 180 days of the alleged incident(s) unless it is a continuing offense. A complaint with the EEOC must be filed within 300 days.

Documentation of any incident may be submitted with any report (what was said or done, the date, the time and the place), including, but not limited to, written records such as letters, notes, memos and telephone messages.

All allegations, including anonymous reports, will be accepted and investigated regardless of how the matter comes to the attention of the library. However, because of the serious implications of sexual harassment charges and the difficulties associated with their investigation and the questions of credibility involved, the claimant's willing cooperation is a vital component of an effective inquiry and an appropriate outcome.

IV. PROHIBITION ON RETALIATION FOR REPORTING SEXUAL HARASSMENT ALLEGATIONS

No library official, library agent, library employee or library agency shall take any retaliatory action against any library employee due to a library employee's:

1. Disclosure or threatened disclosure of any violation of this policy,
2. The provision of information related to or testimony before any public body conducting an investigation, hearing or inquiry into any violation of this policy, or
3. Assistance or participation in a proceeding to enforce the provisions of this policy.

For the purposes of this policy, retaliatory action means the reprimand, discharge, suspension, demotion, denial of promotion or transfer, or change in the terms or conditions of employment of any library employee that is taken in retaliation for a library employee's involvement in protected activity pursuant to this policy.

No individual making a report will be retaliated against even if a report made in good faith is not substantiated. In addition, any witness will be protected from retaliation.

Similar to the prohibition against retaliation contained herein, the State Officials and Employees Ethics Act (5 ILCS 430/15-10) provides whistleblower protection from retaliatory action such as reprimand, discharge, suspension, demotion, or denial of promotion or transfer that occurs in retaliation for an employee who does any of the following:

1. Discloses or threatens to disclose to a supervisor or to a public body an activity, policy, or practice of any officer, member, State agency, or other State employee that the State employee reasonably believes is in violation of a law, rule, or regulation,
2. Provides information to or testifies before any public body conducting an investigation, hearing, or inquiry into any violation of a law, rule, or regulation by any officer, member, State agency or other State employee, or
3. Assists or participates in a proceeding to enforce the provisions of the State Officials and Employees Ethics Act.

Pursuant to the Whistleblower Act (740 ILCS 174/15(a)), an employer may not retaliate against an employee who discloses information in a court, an administrative hearing, or before a legislative commission or committee, or in any other proceeding, where the employee has reasonable cause to believe that the information discloses a violation of a State or federal law, rule, or regulation. In addition, an employer may not retaliate against an employee for disclosing information to a government or law enforcement agency, where the employee has reasonable cause to believe that the information discloses a violation of a State or federal law, rule, or regulation. (740 ILCS 174/15(b)).

According to the Illinois Human Rights Act (775 ILCS 5/6-101), it is a civil rights violation for a person, or for two or more people to conspire, to retaliate against a person because he/she has opposed that which he/she reasonably and in good faith believes to be sexual harassment in employment, because he/she has made a charge, filed a complaint, testified, assisted, or participated in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under the Illinois Human Rights Act.

An employee who is suddenly transferred to a lower paying job or passed over for a promotion after filing a complaint with IDHR or EEOC, may file a retaliation charge – due within 180 days (IDHR) or 300 days (EEOC) of the alleged retaliation.

V. CONSEQUENCES OF A VIOLATION OF THE PROHIBITION ON SEXUAL HARASSMENT

In addition to any and all other discipline that may be applicable pursuant to library policies, employment agreements, procedures, employee handbooks and/or collective bargaining agreement, any person who violates this policy or the Prohibition on Sexual Harassment contained in 5 ILCS 430/5-65, may be subject to a fine of up to $5,000 per offense, applicable discipline or discharge by the library and any applicable fines and penalties established pursuant to local ordinance, State law or Federal law. Each violation may constitute a separate offense. Any discipline imposed by the library shall be separate and distinct from any penalty imposed by an ethics commission and any fines or penalties imposed by a court of law or a State or Federal agency.

VI. CONSEQUENCES FOR KNOWINGLY MAKING A FALSE REPORT

A false report is a report of sexual harassment made by an accuser using the sexual harassment report to accomplish some end other than stopping sexual harassment or retaliation for reporting sexual harassment. A false report is not a report made in good faith which cannot be proven. Given the seriousness of the consequences for the accused, a false or frivolous report is a severe offense that can itself result in disciplinary action. Any person who intentionally makes a false report alleging a violation of any provision of this policy shall be subject to discipline or discharge pursuant to applicable library policies, employment agreements, procedures, employee handbooks and/or collective bargaining agreements.

In addition, any person who intentionally makes a false report alleging a violation of any provision of the State Officials and Employees Ethics Act to an ethics commission, an inspector general, the State Police, a State's Attorney, the Attorney General, or any other law enforcement official is guilty of a Class A misdemeanor. An ethics commission may levy an administrative fine of up to $5,000 against any person who intentionally makes a false, frivolous or bad faith allegation.

FREEDOM TO READ STATEMENT

1. It is in the public interest for publishers and librarians to make available the widest diversity of views and expressions, including those that are unorthodox, unpopular, or considered dangerous by the majority.
2. Publishers, librarians, and booksellers do not need to endorse every idea or presentation they make available. It would conflict with the public interest for them to establish their own political, moral, or aesthetic views as a standard for determining what should be published or circulated.
3. It is contrary to the public interest for publishers or librarians to bar access to writings on the basis of the personal history or political affiliations of the author.
4. There is no place in our society for efforts to coerce the taste of others, to confine adults to the reading matter deemed suitable for adolescents, or to inhibit the efforts of writers to achieve artistic expression.
5. It is not in the public interest to force a reader to accept the prejudgment of a label characterizing any expression or its author as subversive or dangerous.
6. It is the responsibility of publishers and librarians, as guardians of the people's freedom to read, to contest encroachments upon that freedom by individuals or groups seeking to impose their own standards or tastes upon the community at large; and by the government whenever it seeks to reduce or deny public access to public information.
7. It is the responsibility of publishers and librarians to give full meaning to the freedom to read by providing books that enrich the quality and diversity of thought and expression. By the exercise of this affirmative responsibility, they can demonstrate that the answer to a "bad" book is a good one, the answer to a "bad" idea is a good one.

Adopted June 25, 1953, by the ALA Council and the AAP Freedom to Read Committee; amended January 28, 1972; January 16, 1991; July 12, 2000; June 30, 2004.

FREEDOM TO VIEW

1. To provide the broadest access to film, video, and other audiovisual materials because they are a means for the communication of ideas. Liberty of circulation is essential to insure the constitutional guarantees of freedom of expression.
2. To protect the confidentiality of all individuals and institutions using film, video, and other audiovisual materials.
3. To provide film, video, and other audiovisual materials which represent a diversity of views and expression. Selection of a work does not constitute or imply agreement with or approval of the content.
4. To provide a diversity of viewpoints without the constraint of labeling or prejudging film, video, or other audiovisual materials on the basis of the moral, religious, or political beliefs of the producer or filmmaker or on the basis of controversial content.
5. To contest vigorously, by all lawful means, every encroachment upon the public's freedom to view.

Adopted by the American Film and Video Association February 1979.

Updated and approved by the AFVA in 1989.

Endorsed by the ALA January 10, 1990

LIBRARY BILL OF RIGHTS

The American Library Association affirms that all libraries are forums for information and ideas, and that the following basic policies should guide their services.

1. Books and other library resources should be provided for the interest, information, and enlightenment of all people of the community the library serves. Materials should not be excluded because of the origin, background, or views of those contributing to their creation.
2. Libraries should provide materials and information presenting all points of view on current and historical issues. Materials should not be proscribed or removed because of partisan or doctrinal disapproval.
3. Libraries should challenge censorship in the fulfillment of their responsibility to provide information and enlightenment.
4. Libraries should cooperate with all persons and groups concerned with resisting abridgment of free expression and free access to ideas.
5. A person's right to use a library should not be denied or abridged because of origin, age, background, or views.
6. Libraries which make exhibit spaces and meeting rooms available to the public they serve should make such facilities available on an equitable basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of individuals or groups requesting their use.
7. All people, regardless of origin, age, background, or views, possess a right to privacy and confidentiality in their library use. Libraries should advocate for, educate about, and protect people's privacy, safeguarding all library use data, including personally identifiable information.

The Library, if or when required by law, shall report such conviction to the appropriate authorities.

A patron who violates the terms of this policy may be expelled from the library location involved or any library location at the discretion of the Library, and use privileges may be suspended for a specified period of time. The library shall obtain and make available material from local, system, state, and national anti-drug and alcohol abuse organizations and, where appropriate, enlist the aid of community and state organizations with drug and alcohol information and rehabilitation programs to provide information to the Library patrons and employees.

In order to make patrons and employees aware of the dangers of drug and alcohol abuse, notice of the Standard of Conduct imposed by this policy and the sanctions imposed for violation of this policy shall be distributed to all employees and prominently posted at the Library for patrons and employees to see. - B. Exposure Determination: No particular job classification of the Library has occupational exposure (meaning “reasonable anticipated ... contact with blood or other potentially infectious materials that may result from the performance of an employee’s duties”), however, emergencies may occur with staff or patrons, particularly youth or elderly patrons, to which library employees in all classifications may be called upon to respond with assistance. Or emergencies with “out of control” individuals (e.g. biting, spitting, etc.) could present an individual threat.

Engineering and work practice controls shall be used to eliminate or minimize employee exposures, and if a possibility or exposure remains, personal protective equipment shall also be used.

- D. Exposure Control Plan: At any time within the Library environment that human blood, human body fluids, or other potentially infectious materials are present, the area contaminated shall be immediately cordoned off and quarantined, even if the entire library must be closed to accomplish this completely. Personal protective clothing, such as gloves, gowns, masks, etc., shall be provided and used in the cleanup and safe disposal of contaminated waste such as diapers, blood-tinged materials (e.g. Band-Aids, gauze, cotton, clothing, etc.), etc. If advisable, a professional hazardous/contaminated cleanup firm shall be contacted and retained for a complete cleanup and disposal is obtained. Hand-washing facilities are provided by the Library and must be used by the employees as soon as feasible, including following the removal of personal protective equipment.
